Registration of the International Trademark

Dear applicant, we offer the public registration of your patent in our portfolio. The registration is subject to the following conditions: Country code, publication number, filing number, publication date, international classification, international patent classification, inventors' and applicants' names. Our offer will be accepted, with the payment of the amount, and becomes a binding contract between you and ODM s.r.l. It is irrevocable and applies for one year. Please contact the office for registration of your trademark with the publication of official registration, and to use a registration by a professional organization, and we have any business relation. The offer for registration is not an invoice for a subscription unless otherwise stated in the offer. All further details are included in our General Terms and Business Conditions on our website. Please check the details and inform us about mistakes and modifications. ODM
